

At the theatre in April

The musical Chess is being performed at the Festival Theatre by the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland this April, but the line up for the month is made up of all sorts of shows from Eddi Reader to a screening of Hedda Gabler by the National Theatre and musical comedy with The Addams Family.

MUSICAL

THE ROYAL CONSERVATOIRE OF SCOTLAND

CHESS

Festival Theatre

Thu 30 March to Sat 1 April

Before the global explosion of Mamma Mia! came Chess. From the musical minds of ABBA's Benny and Bjorn and the lyrical pen of Sir Tim Rice, this West End and Broadway hit comes to Edinburgh direct from the Royal Conservatoire of Scotland.

Set against the backdrop of the Cold War, two Soviet and American chess grandmasters engage in strategic battle, fighting for their beliefs, personal glory, and the love of the same woman.

MUSICAL

Edinburgh Music Theatre- Fiddler On The Roof

King's Theatre

Wed 5 to Sat 8 April

Overflowing with humour and passion this is one of the best-loved musicals of all time featuring If I Were a Rich Man, Sunrise Sunset, Matchmaker Matchmaker and many more.

SCOTTISH OPERA

Bluebeard's Castle & The 8th Door

Festival Theatre

Wed 5 & Sat 8 April

Bartók's beautiful, mysterious opera is staged in collaboration with visionary Scottish theatre company Vanishing Point and stars internationally acclaimed singers Karen Cargill and Robert Hayward. Directed by Vanishing Point Artistic Director Matthew Lenton, Bluebeard is presented alongside the world premiere of The 8th Door, co-created with Scottish Opera Composer in Residence Lliam Paterson, as a companion piece to Bluebeard's gruesome story

SCREENING

National Theatre Encore Screening: Hedda Gabler

Festival Theatre

Fri 7 April, 7pm

Tony Award-winning director Ivo van Hove returns to the National Theatre with a modern production of Ibsen's masterpiece, starring Ruth Wilson (Luther, The Affair, Jane Eyre) in a new version by Patrick Marber (Notes on a Scandal, Closer).

MUSIC

Nathan Carter

Festival Theatre

Sun 9 April, 7.30pm

Nathan Carter is one of the biggest names on the Irish music scene and is fast becoming a big name all over the UK with his fine performances that include the hit song Wagon Wheel. Nathan and his six man band perform a great variety of country, Irish, pop and ballads – music for everyone of all ages. Nathan is an expert accordion player so you can expect a bit of hand clapping, foot tapping hooley as well.

KIDS

Dinosaur World

Festival Theatre

Mon 10 & Tue 11 April

Dare to experience the dangers and delights of Dinosaur World in this interactive new show for all the family. Meet a host of impressive creatures, including Tyrannosaurus Rex, Triceratops, Giraffatitan and Segnosaurus! Grab your compass and join our intrepid explorer across uncharted territories to discover a pre-historic world of astonishing (and remarkably life-like) dinosaurs.

SCREENING

National Theatre Encore Screening- Twelfth Night

Festival Theatre

Wed 12 April, 7pm

Tamsin Greig is Malvolia in a new twist on Shakespeare's classic comedy of mistaken identity, directed by Simon Godwin.

MUSIC

Eddi Reader

Festival Theatre

Thu 13 April, 7.30pm

The supremely talented, unique and charismatic Scottish singer is back at the Festival Theatre, performing songs from her triumphant new double album that collects thirty of her most consistently beautiful, often deeply personal and intimate songs.

DANCE

Phoenix Dance Theatre

Festival Theatre

Sat 15 April

Phoenix Dance Theatre's mixed programme for 2017 presents a programme of thrilling works demonstrating the company's internationally respected athletic power, emotional intensity and dynamic movement, includes work by Douglas Thorpe and a new piece currently in development by Sandrine Monin and composer Roberto Rusconi.

DRAMA

Nell Gwynn

King's Theatre

Tue 18 to Sat 22 April

1660, Drury Lane. Charles II has cast off London's drab, puritanical past with a love of all things loud, French and sexy. A young Nell Gwynn is selling oranges for sixpence in London's burgeoning West End theatre scene. Little does she know who is in the audience one fateful night. Jessica Swale's warm hearted, bawdy comedy tells the story of an unlikely heroine, who went from lowly orange seller to win the adoration of the public and the heart of the King. Starring Olivier Award nominated actress Laura Pitt-Pulford, Nell Gwynn is brought to the stage by English Touring Theatre.

MUSICAL

The Addams Family

Festival Theatre

Thu 20 to Sat 29 April

Wednesday Addams, the ultimate princess of darkness, is all grown up and has a shocking secret that only Gomez knows.

She's fallen in love with a sweet young man from a respectable family. With his cherished Morticia in the dark will Gomez manage to keep his daughter's secret until the two families meet for a fateful dinner with hilarious consequences? Join them, plus Uncle Fester, Lurch, Pugsley and more for a heart-warming story of love, family and friendship...with a twist! Starring Samantha Womack (EastEnders) as Morticia, Carrie Hope Fletcher (Chitty Chitty Bang Bang) as Wednesday, Cameron Blakely (Les Misérables) as Gomez and Les Dennis (Coronation Street) as Uncle Fester, Featuring a live orchestra and extraordinary original score. The Addams Family is sure to entertain whether you are 7 or 307!

DRAMA

Not Dead Enough

King's Theatre

Mon 24 to Sat 29 April

Following the huge sell-out success of The Perfect Murder and Dead Simple, the thrilling work of multi-million selling author Peter James returns to the stage with the world premiere production of Not Dead Enough. Starring West End, award-winning actor Bill Ward (Emmerdale, Coronation Street), as DS Roy Grace, Laura Whitmore (Strictly Come Dancing 2016), and Stephen Billington (Hollyoaks, Coronation Street).

KIDS

Mr Bloom's Nursery Live!

King's Theatre

Sun 30 April, 1.30pm & 4pm

Bring your tiddlers along to join Mr Bloom and the Veggies on their first ever live tour! They're busily getting the allotment ready for a very special visit from a member of the Royal family. Featuring all of the much loved elements of the TV show, Mr Bloom (Ben Faulks) will be joined by his veggie friends and his trusty compostarium!