

Hibs tickets for Scottish Cup semi-final on sale today

Tickets for the William Hill Scottish Cup Semi Final between Hibs and Aberdeen (Saturday 22 April, KO 12.15pm) go on sale from 10am on Friday.

Sales Dates

Tickets will go on sale to 16-17 season ticket holders from 10am on Friday 31 March, available only online and via the Hibernian Call Centre initially.

Sales from the Ticket Office will commence at 10am on Monday 3 April – they will not be sold from the Ticket Office on the opening days of sales.

10am, Friday 31 March: Online and phone sales only, exclusive to season ticket holders (2 per client reference number, max 10 per transaction)

10am, Monday 3 April: Online, phone and in-person sales, exclusive to season ticket holders (2 per client reference number), max 10 per transaction)

10am, Friday 7 April: Online and phone sales only, general database sale (max. 10 per client reference number)

10am, Tuesday 11 April: Online, phone and in-person sales, general database sale (max. 10 per client reference number)

As above, season ticket holders will be entitled to purchase two tickets per client reference number during the priority window. Supporters on the Hibernian database will be able to buy a maximum of 10 tickets.

The priority window for this match relates only to season ticket holders for the 2016-17 season.

Sections

Hibernian have been given an allocation of approximately 21,000 tickets, split across the North, South Lower and East Stands. Aberdeen have been given a similar allocation in the North, South Lower and West Stands.

Ticket Prices

Tickets are priced as follows:

North and William Hill (South) Stands

Adult: £30

Concession: £15

East Stand

Adult: £20

Concession: £10

*Concession tickets apply to under 16s and senior citizens

Away Season Ticket

Those who have an away season ticket will be allocated a seat in the North Stand. The money will be debited on Monday 27 March.

As season ticket holders are able to purchase two per client reference number, fans will be able to purchase one additional ticket when tickets go on sale on Friday 31 March. Unfortunately Hibs are unable to take individual requests to position or move these seats.
