

Man and two women detained following death of man in Gibson Terrace

A man and two women have been detained as part of an ongoing investigation into the death of a 41-year-old man in Gibson Terrace yesterday

The death is currently being treated as suspicious and inquiries are continuing.