

Man charged with dangerous driving after lorry overturned on Forth Road Bridge

A man has been charged with dangerous driving after a lorry overturned on the Forth Road Bridge yesterday

As a result of this incident, the bridge was closed in both directions for around three and a half hours until the vehicle was safely recovered.

The 56-year-old is scheduled to appear at Dunfermline Sheriff Court later today.