

Situation vacant at Edinburgh Police Choir

The Edinburgh Police Choir have a vacancy for a new Musical Director as their current MD is to retire.

✘ The choir is based in Edinburgh and has 50 members. They have won many awards and have a reputation for exceptional performance, quality singing and they can sing a wide variety of modern popular music.

They play about 15 concerts per year in and around the capital, and practice each Sunday evening in Edinburgh. A modest remuneration would be paid to the successful candidate.

Applicants must ideally fulfil the following criteria –

A musician with wide experience of performing and conducting a choir.

Running Rehearsals and motivating singers

Able to score and arrange music

Piano/Keyboard player (for rehearsal and teaching purposes).

Knowledge of vocal techniques and teaching.

Good relevant contacts in the music industry

Willingness to work on a wide-ranging repertoire and further develop the choir's range of music

The choir is managed by a committee of members who will advise and assist.

Applicants will be invited to conduct a session with the choir before a decision is made.

Those interested should contact Fraser Cameron, Choir Chairman (fraser889@btinternet.com), or Dominika Mnich Choir Manager (edinburghpolicechoir@gmail.com) for further information.

Email your CV and covering letter to edinburghpolicechoir@gmail.com Applications close on 20

March 2017.