

Three due in court following Gibson Terrace murder

A man and two women have been charged with murder following death of a man in a Fountainbridge flat.

Armed police and ambulance staff were called to a property on Gibson Terrace opposite the Fountain Park complex on Sunday night.

Ambulance service personnel treated the 41-year-old man at the scene but he was later pronounced dead.

A man aged 36 and two women aged 34 and 39 were arrested and charged with murder.

They are expected to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court this afternoon.
