

Wave your glasses in the air at Specsavers this Red Nose Day

For Red Nose Day on 24 March 2017 you can get an accessory for your red nose in the shape of some comedy waving hand glasses.

Specsavers Cameron Toll will be selling these for adults and children for just £2. All money raised will go to Comic Relief.

As well as this fundraising the staff are challenged to complete a 560 mile run the distance from Edinburgh to the Specsavers HQ in Guernsey and they are looking for donations of 50p per minute for that.

They will be running on a treadmill in store during March to clock up the miles.

Craig Selbie, store director at Specsavers in Cameron Toll says: 'The glasses are fantastic and we'll be encouraging everyone who buys a pair to also join our giant Mexican wave on social media as well. Simply strike a pose with your glasses and post with the #GiveUsAWave to receive your very own wave back.'

Specsavers in Cameron Toll has joined Specsavers stores nationwide to support Comic Relief to help poor and vulnerable people living tough lives both here in the UK and across Africa and pledged to raise at least £250,000 for the charity.

Specsavers has been a Comic Relief partner since 2015.
