

At the Open Eye Gallery – Adrian Wiszniewski RSA

From 21 April to 8 May 2017

Open Eye Gallery 34 Abercromby Place Edinburgh EH3 6QE

As one of the new Glasgow Boys Wiszniewski is known for his dreamlike scenarios and bold figuration.

He has designed sculptures, prints, tapestries, rugs and the restaurant at the Gallery of Modern Art.

This exhibition is called The Night Gardener and features contemplative figures with vividly coloured Arcadian landscapes.

Adrian Wiszniewski RSA was born in Castlemilk Glasgow in 1958 and trained in architecture before attending Glasgow School of Art to study fine art.

Along with Ken Currie, Peter Howson and Steven Campbell, he was a leading figure in a revival of figurative painting in Scottish art. This group became known as the New Glasgow Boys after they were selected for a show entitled A Vigorous Imagination at the Scottish Gallery of Modern Art.

He lives in Lochwinnoch, Renfrewshire with his family.

All works are available for purchase and a prices can be viewed at www.openeyegallery.co.uk.
