

Barack Obama will speak at Edinburgh charity event

News has broken today that President Barack Obama will visit the capital at the end of May to speak at a charity fundraiser.

President Barack Obama, the 44th President of the United States, will address philanthropy and business leaders at a dinner in Edinburgh on 26th May 2017 at the EICC.

Hosted by the philanthropy, The Hunter Foundation (thehunterfoundation.co.uk), all profits from the event will be invested in charities supporting young people in Scotland.

Sir Tom Hunter, founder of The Hunter Foundation commented; "From the South Side of Chicago to the White House has been an epic, historic journey and it will be a true honour to hear that story from the man who made that journey. We are both truly proud and delighted to be hosting the 44th President of the United States in Scotland at this event."
