Scotland's senior men's hockey squad has launched a fund-raising campaign to pay for their the campaign in the World League semi-finals in London this June.

This is the first time a Scotland team has ever qualified for this stage and they are bidding for a chance to play in the Hockey World Cup.

In London, Scotland will face England, the Netherlands, India, Pakistan, Korea, Canada, China, Malaysia, and Argentina.

A crowdfunding appeal has been launched and a Scottish Hockey spokesman said: "The squad requires financial support.

"The team has done amazingly well thus far. Will you help them on the next step of the journey?

"Further details of fund-raising campaigns for the team will be announced in the coming weeks."
