

Free pet advice available at Edinburgh supermarket

The Tesco Bank Edinburgh pet roadshow at Corstorphine, Edinburgh, on Friday, April 28 from 10am to 2pm gives customers the chance to pick up a free goody bag of pet treats, pet care advice from local vet nurses and meet the dogs from the Edinburgh Dog and Cat Home.

Celebrity vet and University of Edinburgh graduate Marc Abraham will be in attendance at the Edinburgh roadshow to answer customer questions and share his top tips for responsible pet ownership

The initiative is part of National Pet Month and the roadshows feature practical demonstrations on topics such as cleaning your pet's teeth, grooming your pet and treating your pet for fleas.

David McCreadie, managing director of Tesco Bank, said: "We sponsor National Pet Month and see it as an opportunity to help customers take better care of their pets.

"Our Pet Roadshows feature vet-led demonstrations and there will be an opportunity for people to ask questions."

At the Tesco Corstorphine store on Friday 28 April from 10am-2pm and would encourage all customers and their four legged friends to come along.

10:00 – 11:00 – Grooming Demonstration – Pet Ear Care
11:00 – 11:30 – Marc Abraham – my top ten tips for responsible pet ownership

11:30 – 12:00 – Advice Talk – Pet
Nutrition

12:00 -12:30 – Advice Talk-
Socialisation

12:30 – 13:00 – Demonstration –
Doggy Dental Care

13:00 – 13:30 – Grooming
Demonstration – Checking for Fleas

13:30 – 14:00 – Advice Talk –
Microchipping