

Hotel Indigo celebrates fifth birthday

Hotel Indigo Edinburgh on York place celebrates the BIG 5! – Kicking off its birthday celebrations in April, Hotel Indigo Edinburgh on York Place welcomed guests and the local community to join them in celebrating 5 fabulous years with a photo party, tea and cake to raise money for partner charity, the Teapot Trust.

Hotel Indigo in York Place celebrated its fifth birthday with tea cake and photos. They also raised funds for their partner charity the Teapot Trust at the same time.

 Lynsay Findlay, General Manager of Hotel Indigo Edinburgh said : “Five years on its great to see our neighbours come together to help us celebrate for a good cause.

“To mark this special occasion, we have introduced Polaroid cameras. (Polaroid turns 70 this year!) This will we hope encourage staff and guests to create some instant takeaway memories with us.”
