

Motor sport – Ingliston Revival is back on the grid

The Ingliston Revival Festival is back for a second year and it will be hosting the first competition seen on the track in 23 years.

The event will feature a celebration of the halcyon days of Ingliston Racing Circuit.

The 1960s-themed event will feature some of the UK's top vintage and classic cars, an interactive motorsport area and simulators, a vintage fun fair, retail village, a classic stunt show and the Jim Clark Museum.

The festival also boasts a campsite, with food and drink outlets including the Revival Bar.

Guests can also enjoy listening to live, local music from the 60s and 70s.

The dates are Saturday 13 and Sunday 14 May 2017 with track activity starting at 9am each day and finishing at 5pm on Saturday and 4pm on Sunday

Tickets start from £20 and include admission for one child (under 16) who must be accompanied by an adult.
