

Boxing – Scotland can make a real impact says world chief

John Macpherson (left), chairman of Boxing Scotland, Dr Wu and Lochend founder Terry McCormack in deep conversation in Edinburgh.
Picture Nigel Duncan Media

Scotland has great potential according to Dr Ching-Kuo Wu, president of the International Boxing Association (AIBA).

He has just completed a four-day, fact-finding trip to discuss where AIBA can help Scotland make a real impact.

And he has now jetted home to Taiwan to assess his findings. He met Nigel Duncan of The Edinburgh Reporter at Lochend Boxing club and here are his thoughts.