

Man charged with murder following Wester Hailes death

A male has been charged with murder following the death of a man in the Wester Hailes area of Edinburgh.

Jaymie Stuart Hall sustained a number of serious injuries during a disturbance in Dumbryden Gardens at around 9.25 p.m. on Saturday 27th May.

The 35-year-old was taken to the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh where he passed away a short time later.

A major investigation was launched by officers in the Capital and a 41-year-old man was subsequently arrested.

He is scheduled to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court tomorrow.
