

Man due in court following Prestonpans robbery

A 35-year-old man is due to appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court today in connection with a robbery in Prestonpans which occurred around 1.45pm on Tuesday 2nd May in Kirk Street.

Chief Inspector Matt Paden, local area commander for East Lothian said: "Crimes of this nature are highly unusual in East Lothian and I appreciate the assistance that we received from members of the public during the investigation.

"I would also like to acknowledge the officers from the Musselburgh Community Investigation unit whose hard work and diligence lead to a male being charged with this offence."
