SCOTLAND THE BEST 100 Places

×

Pete Irvine may be known as the man who first brought us Edinburgh's Hogmanay, but he is also an author.

SCOTLAND THE BEST 100 Places is an eclectic and very personal mix of the most beautiful and interesting places across Scotland.

The paperback edition was published earlier in the year, and it is full of wonderful photos, making it the must buy book whether you live here or are passing through.

Written in exactly the same gloriously eloquent way that he speaks, it will tell you about wonderful places off the well-beaten tourist track.

Published by Collins £12.99

Click here to buy.