

SYHA open pop up hostel for summer

New temporary youth hostel near the centre of Edinburgh

SYHA Hostelling Scotland has added 143 en-suite rooms at the new Edinburgh Haddington Place Youth Hostel to its portfolio from 17 July to 2 September 2017,

The rooms are ideal for individual travellers and small groups looking for a central location as it is 15 minutes walk from Edinburgh's city centre and main transport links.

It is also close to SYHA's flagship, five-star Edinburgh Central Youth Hostel, open all year and a popular choice with families and large groups.

SYHA chief executive Keith Legge said: "Securing additional youth hostel accommodation in Edinburgh for the busy summer months has long been part of our strategy.

"We can now offer an even wider range of affordable accommodation to families, groups, young people and individual travellers looking to make the most of the capital's vibrant summer festivals."

For more information on SYHA Hostelling Scotland go to – <https://www.syha.org.uk/>.