

Woman killed in Davidson's Mains

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for witnesses following a fatal collision in the Davidson's Mains area.

The collision took place around 9.15am on Sunday 14 May at the junction of Quality Street and Main Street.

A 70-year-old woman was struck by a Lothian Bus and was sadly pronounced dead at the scene.

Road closures remain in place and motorists are advised to avoid the area while investigations continue at the scene.

Inspector Stuart Mitchell of Drylaw Police Station said: "Our thoughts are with the woman's family at this very difficult time and we continue to offer them support.

"Our enquiries into this collision are ongoing and we'd ask anyone who can help to come forward.

"Anyone who may have witnessed this collision and has not yet spoken to officers is urged to get in touch."

Those with information can contact Police Scotland via 101, quoting incident number 1270 of 14 May.
