

Edinburgh Festival Fringe Preview: Jonny & The Baptists: Best of 2012-2017

The musical comedy stars celebrate five years of silly songs and satirical anthems for one week only at the Edinburgh Fringe

Multi-award-nominated, nationally acclaimed musical comedians JONNY & THE BAPTISTS are thrilled to announce THE BEST OF 2012-2017. A barnstorming retrospective of their career to date, the show plays from 13-19 August at their regular Edinburgh Fringe home, Paines Plough's Roundabout at Summerhall.

Promising a riotous hour of musical and comedic virtuosity that has won them adoring fans and rave national reviews, JONNY & THE BAPTISTS: THE BEST OF 2012-2017 plays for six nights only with limited capacity. The special set will feature fan favourites from their early gigs through to the iTunes Chart-topping single Farage and hits from their sell-out Edinburgh shows as well as appearances across TV and radio including Radio 4's The Now Show and the BBC's Live at Television Centre.

The show comes after another stellar year for the satirical rockers, with their most recent show Eat The Poor playing a 50-date nationwide tour in spring 2017, and their festive show 30 CHRISTMASSES running in Oxford in December to critical acclaim, being named in The Stage newspaper's Top 10 UK Christmas shows of 2016.

Jonny & The Baptists – The Best of 2012-2017 runs at Paines Plough's Roundabout, Summerhall, Edinburgh from 13th-19th August at 7.25pm. Tickets here
