

Fame – The Musical Heads to Edinburgh's King's Theatre

Fame – the Musical, a West End smash hit based on the 1980's film Fame including the best-selling title song arrives in Edinburgh this summer on an epic scale.

Now the musical comes to the King's Theatre in Scotland's capital city, giving the audience a welcome to New York City and a sneak-peak into lives of the young people studying at the USA's top Performing Arts Academy

Following on from The Beyond Broadway Experience's sell-out run last summer, Fame promises to get you "Remembering Our Name" and "Dancin' on the Sidewalk" all the way home!

Fame – the Musical is on at the King's Theatre on Friday 21st and Saturday 22nd July 2017. Tickets are available here.
