At the Scottish Professional Football League (SPFL)'s Annual General Meeting today, the 42-member clubs elected six club representatives who will serve on the SPFL Board for the next twelve months.

Among the three Ladbrokes Premiership representatives are Hearts owner and Chief Executive Ann Budge who was first elected a year ago. Les Gray (Hamilton Academical) and Stewart Robertson (Rangers) were also elected for this year.

The Ladbrokes Championship representatives are Martin Ritchie (Falkirk) and Warren Hawke (Greenock Morton)

The Ladbrokes League 1 and League 2 representative is Iain Dougan (Stranraer)
