

Bjorn Johnsen Leaves Hearts

Hearts have announced that striker Bjorn Johnsen has left Tynecastle and has signed for Dutch Eredivisie side ADO Den Haag for a fee which has been described as 'undisclosed'.

The Norwegian-American made 37 appearances for the Maroons, scoring six goals but despite early promise, never fulfilled the early potential shown.

A well-publicised spat with Hearts Head Coach Ian Cathro during a game against St Johnstone at the end of last season meant there was no way back for the big striker at Tynecastle.
