

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – A Dash of Theatre presents ‘Class Mates’

“Take one community centre, three evening classes, six skill-seekers and then stand back!

Night-class-aholic Karen and newly separated daughter Izzy tackle Zumba. Under-pre-pared dad-to-be Zack meets over-prepared Marla in Antenatal class. While in Beginners Sewing, social-media addicted Laurie-May gives stressed-out mum Claire, the needle!

They want to learn to salsa like a Zumba Pro, create the perfect blanket-stitch and straddle a birthing ball like a gymnast. But they’re about to learn much more – about friendship, parenthood, and themselves.”

New Celts Productions & A Dash of Theatre present the heart-warming comedy CLASS MATES, a new piece of writing by BAFTA Rocliffe award-winning duo Anne-Marie Draycott and Charity Trimm.

Aug 7, 9, 11, 13, 15, 17, 19, 21, 23, 25 – 14:20 (1hr 5mins) £9.50 (£6.00) | theSPACE on The Mile V39b | 80 High Street EH1 1TH

Tickets here