

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – Aaron Calvert: Awaken

Following a sensational 2016 sell-out debut, Aaron Calvert returns to the Edinburgh Festival Fringe this year with even more astounding mind reading and fascinating hypnotic feats in his brand-new show.

26-year-old Mancunian Aaron Calvert originally trained as a doctor before stepping onto the stage full time. In the 18 months since graduating his career in hypnosis has taken off. His debut show Aaron Calvert: Mind Games was a sell-out success at Edinburgh Fringe in 2016, filling Edinburgh's largest free fringe venue on a daily basis, with a total of more than 5000 people seeing the show during its run. A tranche of great reviews coupled with his natural charisma and showmanship have led to him becoming highly sort after by TV companies. Now represented by Triple A Media, Aaron has an exciting year ahead working on several Television projects that will showcase his hypnotic abilities.
