

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – Caroline Mabey: Quetzals

Caroline Mabey is proud to present her highly-anticipated fifth full-length show at this year's Edinburgh Festival Fringe.

Caroline's memory isn't what it once was.

Or so she assumes.

Join her as she desperately tries to memorise the 103 allowable two letter Scrabble words, in this joyful, addled meander through self-help, holistic dance and learning to love the disappointment of truly being yourself.

Caroline has been doing stand-up for over a decade, with four solo Edinburgh shows under her belt. She's resident MC at the 99 Club in London and has performed across the UK. She is also a regular at popular cult experimental night the Alternative Comedy Memorial Society.

She is one half of double act the Two Stupids with Michael Legge and they are presenting their second Edinburgh Fringe show this year from 16th to 27th August at 3.45pm (The Gothic Room, Laughing Horse @ The Free Sisters). They are also developing their first audiobook (Two Stupids: 50 Shades of Two). Two Stupids was conceived as a fun Edinburgh project for all their ideas that were too stupid for a proper show and it has exceeded all expectations.

Tickets here.

Venue: Just The Tonic – Just the Spare Room @ The Caves (Venue 88)

Dates: 3rd to 27th August 2017 (not 14th)

Time: 7.40pm (8.40pm)

Box office: 0131 226 0000