

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – Fun Time Friends

We're Fish Finger Fridays, a hot new(ish) sketch group fresh from the 2017 Leicester Square Theatre Sketch Off Semi Finals (pretty close) and we're going to be at the Edinburgh Fringe with a playful new sketch offering. Raring to go after packed out run at the 2017 Brighton Fringe, our show Fun Time Friends is guaranteed to leave you grinning.

Bored of white guys? We've got an Asian man! Bored of white men? We've got a lady! (Note – we may also have a white man). Using our unique perspectives this sketch show promises to be (as) socially relevant (as it is downright sexy). And you'll have three new friends for life (or for as long as it takes you to find new, better friends).

Garnering praise for our warm playful comedic charms, we've performed our offbeat, irreverent (GOOD SKETCH WORDS) sketch comedy to packed houses all over the country, becoming not just Fun Time Friends but full time funny.
