

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – ‘Sinatra and Me-Again’

Join ‘Best Actor in a Leading Role’ winner for playing Frank Sinatra in the drama ‘Rat Pack Confidential’ Richard Shelton as he returns to the Edinburgh Fringe with his sell-out show direct from LA which charts the incredible synchronicity between his life and Frank Sinatra’s.

News Interview – Edinburgh Festival from Richard Shelton on Vimeo.

Watch Richard really get Sinatra ‘Under My Skin’ as he don’s Sinatra’s very own tuxedo (confirmed by the late Sir Roger Moore on the Alan Titchmarsh show) and sing’s ‘My Way’.

Shelton on Titchmarsh

But more than that, it’s a chance to be inspired never to give up on your dreams. Hear how Richard did it ‘His Way’ when, already a household name on British TV, he decided to up-sticks and move to LA and try his hand aged 50!

In the 5 years he’s been there, he’s recorded with Sinatra’s band mates, produced a show celebrating Sinatra’s centenary and been in several movies and TV shows.

Don’t miss this truly inspirational show.

Frankenstein Pub, 26 George IV Bridge, Old Town, EH1 1EN

V# – 304 gR – e5 Tickets – Free Fringe

Daily from 4-28 August

Midday-1pm