

Edinburgh International Festival 2017 – At The Queen's Hall

With just over a week away till the Fringe begins, they are getting very excited at The Queen's Hall. Despite the scaffolding which adorns the outside the inside is very lovely and will welcome all kinds of acts this August.

New for this year is the Pop-up Festival Cafe, Monday-Saturday, 5-26 August offering breakfast, coffee & cake and post-performance lunch. Click here to view the menus.

As well as the shows featured below there are morning concerts at 11am which form part of the Edinburgh International Festival. Full details in the programme which you will find below.

Kate Nash plus special guests

Tue 1 August, doors open 7pm

Award-winning artist celebrates the 10th anniversary of her debut album Made Of Bricks.

More info and tickets here

Chris Difford and Kathryn Williams

Wed 2 August, 7.30pm

Chris, co-founder of Squeeze and folk singer/songwriter

Kathryn perform a set each, then they will perform together at the end of the evening.

More info and tickets here

Henning Wehn: Westphalia Is Not An Option

Thu 3 – Sun 6 August, 7.30pm

Thu 10 – Sun 13 August, 7.30pm

Thu 17 – Sun 20 August, 7.30pm

Enjoy an evening of Teutonic jolliness with this very funny man. Many dates to choose from!

More info and tickets here

Karine Polwart Trio

Wed 9 August, 7.30pm

Multi-award winning Karine returns to The Queen's Hall to play a rare intimate show.

More info and tickets here

RANT

Mon 14 August, 7.30pm

Using just their fiddles, RANT weave a tapestry of melodies, textures, layers and sounds. Foot-tapping stuff.

More info and tickets here

Liz Lochhead and The Hazey Janes with Steve Kettley: The Light Comes Back

Tue 15 August, 8pm

Scottish poet and playwright Liz Lochhead collaborates with indie-pop band The Hazey Janes, and saxophonist Steve Kettle. More info and tickets here

Blazin' Fiddles

Wed 16 August, 7.30pm

Fiddles and bows come alight atop guitar and piano from Anna Massie and Angus Lyon, delivering a musically intoxicating evening for all.

More info and tickets here

Bert Inspired: A Tribute to Bert Jansch

Mon 21 August, 8pm

Tonight Bert's musical colleagues come together for a great evening of music: Jacqui McShee, Mike Piggott, Steve Tilston, Bernard Butler, Ben Watt, Karine Polwart, Alasdair Roberts and Archie Fisher. Wow! What a line-up.

More info and tickets here

Donald Shaw's Scotland's Wild Heart

Tue 22 Aug, 8pm | Wed 23 Aug, 7.30pm & 9.30pm

Folk traditions meet orchestral grandeur in this audio-visual spectacular and will immerse you in the landscape and seasons of Scotland.

More info and tickets here

Moishe's Bagel plus special guests

Thu 24 August, 7.30pm

A thrilling mix of klezmer, folk and jazz, backed up by infectious foot-stomping grooves.

More info and tickets here

Playing Politics: The Last Hurrah

Fri 25 August, 7.30pm

Wicked musical comedy from the political parody specialists. "Peerless lampooners... like HIGNFY set to music" (FringeReview.co.uk)

More info and tickets here

Julie Fowlis

Sat 26 August, 7.30pm

Multi-award winning Gaelic/folk artist and genuine crossover star, will be showcasing the material from her new album, which is due for release later in the year.

More info and tickets here

Martin Carthy

Sun 27 August, 7.30pm

For more than 40 years Martin has been one of folk music's greatest innovators. He's a ballad singer, a ground-breaking guitarist and an authoritative interpreter of new compositions.

More info and tickets here

Loading...

Taking too long?

 Reload document

|  Open in new tab

[Download \[162.00 B\]](#)