

Increased concern for missing man John Suskis

Police are appealing for information in order to trace 52-year-old John Suskis who was reported missing from an address in the Morningside area of Edinburgh.

He was last seen around 11am on Wednesday 28th June.

John is described as white with tanned skin, 5ft 7ins, long dark hair with grey streaks.

He was last seen wearing a dark green trousers, brown leather shoes with a white trim around the heel, a black leather jacket and a dark checked baseball cap.

Officers are concerned for John's wellbeing and are urging anyone with information to contact Police Scotland.

Inspector William Faulkner of Howdenhall Police Station said: "John has now not been seen for some time and we are growing increasingly concerned for his welfare.

"I would ask anyone who has seen John, or recognises his description, get in touch with us as soon as possible."

Those with information can contact officers at Howdendall Police Station on 101, quoting incident number 0511 June 29.
