Man will appear at Sheriff Court today following incident there

An 18 year-old man was arrested and charged yesterday after an incident at the Sheriff Court in Edinburgh on Monday 10 July 2017.

The man was detained around 2 o'clock on Tuesday 18 July 2017 in the Granton area.

He will appear at Edinburgh Sheriff Court today.

Chief Inspector James Jones, Area Commander for North West Edinburgh, said: "I would like to thank the local community of North Edinburgh, as it is due to their intelligence and their ongoing support for Stronger North that we have been able to apprehend this man.

"This incident demonstrates the importance of submitting information to police. It allow us to trace those undertaking criminality and bring them to account.

"I would ask those living in the North Edinburgh area who are aware of any criminality in their area to not tolerate it, and report this behaviour to police. This can be done confidentially with officers or anonymously through Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111."
