

Brian Graham joins Jordon Forster at Cheltenham Town.

Brian Graham has completed a move to English side Cheltenham Town.

The striker, 29, joined Hibs last summer and scored 6 goals in 35 appearances, including a stunning diving header on his home debut against Greenock Morton.

His last strike for the club came from the penalty spot in the recent Betfred Cup tie with Montrose.

He joins former team-mate Jordon Forster in making the journey south to the Robins, who play in League Two.

A spokesperson for the club said: "We would like to wish Brian every success with the rest of his career and thank him for his contribution over the past year."