

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 – China Goes Pop

This classical love-story features pop music, pop-art and an award-winning team of acrobats.

Mixing martial arts, physical comedy, and video projection, this spectacular creates a thrillingly theatrical experience that fuses traditional Chinese art forms together with contemporary Broadway story-telling, set to the tune of famous pop songs.

At Edinburgh Fringe as part of the China Focus theatre showcase. The Edinburgh Reporter saw an excerpt from the show at the Assembly Showcase. They were spectacular!
