

Edinburgh Fringe: Boom time with Sean Kelly****

The Sean Kelly Show

Underbelly Ermintrude

1535 hrs

Now this was a lovely hour in the company of Storage Hunter star, Sean Kelly and two guests (Al Porter and Lorna Paterson).

Sean has his own show in the evening so this show is an informal chat show with different guests every day. There is an auction involved with monies going to Help for Heroes. A cause close to the heart of the Iraq war veteran.

Sean lets his guests dominate the show and the wonderfully personable Al Porter needs no second opportunity. Al and Lorna discussed a number of issues although perhaps the most memorable is Lorna sharing a flat with an ex-boyfriend. The image of the photo collage will stay a long time in the mind.

The auction allows for audience involvement and Sean's warm personality makes it an engaging hour. It also meant members of the audience were not shy in digging deep in their pockets.

This is just one of those shows that makes the Fringe such a rich mosaic.
