Field hockey – Forsyth again key as Scotland edge Ukraine

Alan Forsyth again on the mark for Scotland in the EuroHockey Championship II in Glasgow.

Alan Forsyth claimed two goals in three, second-half minutes as Scotland came from behind to snatch a 2-1 win over Ukraine in the EuroHockey Championship II in Glasgow.

Oleh Polishchuk netted for Ukraine after 34 minutes and it took Derek Forsyth's team until the 55th minute to level following a penalty stroke award.

And former Kelburne star Forsyth, who now plays for English side Surbiton, was on the mark again three minutes after that from a penalty corner to secure the home side's third win in Pool A.
