

Missing woman Fiona McMaster found safe and well on Isle of Skye

Police have confirmed that Fiona McMaster has been traced safe and well.

The 41-year-old was found on the Isle of Skye at around 10am on Friday 25th August.

Inspector Graeme Nisbet said: “We would like to thank the public who came forward to provide information that led to Fiona being traced.

“She has been found safe and well which is a great relief to her family”