There's nothing that celebrates British summer quite like the classic iced treats we all know and love, and we've re-created them with our summer cupcake range. It's been great fun working with the bakery team, testing various flavours and ideas to come up with these fantastic designs."

Joanna Partridge, owner of Cuckoo's Bakery, says: "We're delighted to carry on the legacy of Cuckoo's Bakery working with the highest quality local suppliers to produce the most innovative and exciting cupcakes in town. We are looking forward to developing lots of new ideas and putting our own stamp on Cuckoo's Bakery. Watch this space!"
