

Paperwork exhibition on Howe Street

One of the best exhibitions on the Fringe – that's what one of our visitors said. And Paperwork is now back for its fourth year at 2 Howe Street from 18 – 28 August.

✖ Three Edinburgh artists showcase their current works on paper.

Accessible and affordable, these new drawings, prints and paintings will engage and inspire.

In their different ways and with different materials the artists, Marion Barron, Trevor Davies and Ruth Thomas, each explore natural and abstract forms, still life, space, line and colour. All works are for sale.

We open from 11am until 6pm

Previous years visitors said, 'Such varied and beautiful work', 'Really glad I found it when passing', 'I loved the delicacy and the thoughtfulness'.
