

Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2017 : Star Trek Vs Star Wars

Prepare yourself for the ultimate showdown – Star Trek vs Star Wars! Geek culture collides in this fight to see which is better, a galaxy far far away or the final frontier. Hosting this passionate, explosive and heartfelt panel show, Rik Carranza brings together top guests in the battle for sci-fi superiority.

This comedy panel show should once and for all sort out which is better – Trek or Wars, Enterprise or Falcon, Phaser or Blaster, Jar Jar or Neelix? Will Star Trek ‘engage’ you or will you find it ‘most illogical’? Will Stars Wars make you ‘let go of your hate’ or will you ‘get a bad feeling about this’? The panel enthuse, defend, debate – but the audience decide.

After a sell out run at the Edinburgh Festival Fringe 2016, Star Trek vs Star Wars has been known to even draw a smile from the body of Darth Vader himself, David Prowse, this is a show not afraid to poke fun at its beloved franchises.

After touring the UK, Star Trek vs Star Wars is bringing the battle back to where it all began, Edinburgh Festival Fringe. Will the force be strong with you or is today a good day to die?

Follow the debate on Twitter using #STvsSW

Venue: Heroes @ Monkey Barrel

Time: 13:10

Dates: 03 – 27 August. No show 16 August

Buy tickets here