

Royal High School Preservation Trust appeal to the Lord Provost

The trustees of the Royal High School Preservation Trust have appealed to the Lord Provost to support their bid to convert the empty school into a new home for St Mary's Music School.

Students of St Mary's Music School in front of the Old Royal High

The trustees have sent the letter reproduced below:

Loading...

Taking too long?

Reload document

|  Open in new tab

[Download \[162.00 B\]](#)