

Speedway – Masters back on track

Edinburgh

Sam Masters is back. Picture by Jack Cupido

Monarchs skipper Sam Masters made his comeback after injury on Monday.

The Aussie scored five points as Wolverhampton Wolves beat Belle Vue Aces in the SGB Premiership.

Masters competed in four heats gaining third place finishes in three and a second in one.

Wolves won 49-41 with Freddie Lindgren recording a 15-point maximum and former Edinburgh rider Rory Schlein next best on ten points.

Mark Riss, who also rides for Edinburgh, scored four points while ex-Edinburgh skipper Craig Cook was best for Aces with 12 points.

Another former Monarchs star, Steve Worrall, scored nine with Glasgow Tigers racer Dan Bewley scoring six for Belle Vue.