

Weekend quiz – how well do you know Harry Potter

Our local bus tour company Rabbie's have devised a Harry Potter quiz..... and they have given us a special spell to allow us to use it here.

(Well it's maybe not a spell, more of a code...)

We hope you enjoy it!

Rabbie's invite you to go beyond the guidebooks in small buses which take up to 16 people. They go all over the place on Whisky tours and tours of the Scottish Highlands. And one of the tours takes you to Alnwick Castle just over the border where some of the scenes in Harry Potter were filmed.
