

Cramond & Barnton Community Council will meet next week

The first meeting of the Cramond & Barnton Community Council to be held after the summer break takes place at the Cramond Kirk Hall on 21 September 2017.

The meeting will cover regular business including a police report, planning report and an update from the local councillors.

The community council issued an end of year report ahead of the summer to explain some of the work they have done on behalf of residents which you can read here :
