

Love Actually coming to the Usher Hall with full orchestra

Love Actually is probably the most favourite Christmas film of recent times and now it is coming to the Usher Hall for a pre-Christmas screening with a full orchestra playing live.

☒ Directed by Richard Curtis and originally released in cinemas in 2003, Love Actually is ten stories all interwoven. Who can forget Hugh Grant as the Prime Minister?

The film features an all-star ensemble cast, including Hugh Grant, Liam Neeson, Colin Firth, Laura Linney, Bill Nighy, Martine McCutcheon, Alan Rickman, Emma Thompson, Keira Knightley Rowan Atkinson, Martin Freeman, and many more.

A full, live orchestra will perform Craig Armstrong's score at these shows, with the film being projected onto a huge screen. Armstrong is one of the UK's most recognised film composers, with his work being awarded a BAFTA for his Achievement in Film Music.

5 December 2017 at The Usher Hall

Tickets go on sale on 20 September at the venue and Ticketmaster pre-sales. General sale from Thursday 21 September.

£39.50, £49.50, £65

Ticketmaster