

Police release CCTV following serious assault at front door of Liquid Rooms

Police have released CCTV images in order to trace two men in connection with a serious assault at the front door of the Liquid Rooms in Victoria Street.

The incident happened around 11.25pm on Friday, August 25, when a 33-year-old man, who was working within premises, sustained a serious facial injury following an altercation in the doorway.

The 33-year-old was taken to the Edinburgh Royal Infirmary for treatment and was released a short time later.

Officers are keen to trace two men in connection with this incident in order to assist their enquiries.

The first is a white man, believed to be of Polish nationality. He is around 30-35 years old, with a medium build and short brown hair. He was wearing a khaki green hooded jacket, dark jeans and tan boots. He was also wearing glasses.

The second man is also white and believed to be of Polish nationality. He is around 30-35 years old, balding and has a slim build. He was wearing a grey hooded top and jeans.

Detective Constable Stephen Herd of Gayfield CID said, "The victim was conducting his work when he was attacked in a vicious manner which resulted in a painful and serious facial injury. We have been conducting enquiries including viewing CCTV from the Liquid Rooms.

"The men shown in the images are believed to be significant to our investigation and anyone who can identify them is asked to come forward.

“Similarly, we would ask that these men get in touch with police in order to assist with the investigation.”

Anyone with information can contact officers at Gayfield CID on 101, quoting incident number 4851 of August 25, or anonymously through Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
