

Sailing – Port Edgar crew in Euro final

Port Edgar Yacht Club are sponsoring this crew in the final of the European Sailing Champions League

A squad from South Queensferry-based Port Edgar Yacht Club (PEYC) are the only British team in the final of the European Sailing Champions League.

Helm Callum Calder plus Iain Dick, Callum Reid and Ramsay Leuchers as crew, travel to Porto Cervo, Sardinia at the end of this month,

The final brings together 31 crews from 12 European nations and the crew have already taken part in races in St Petersburg, Russia, and in St Moritz, Switzerland.

PEYC are sponsoring the crew and Ian Hards, the club's development officer, said: "This result is testament to the success of the race training initiative at the club.

"If anyone is interested in being a future sailing champion, this superb centre of excellence at the Port Edgar Yacht Club is where to look"