

Speedway – Masters and Wells in title quest

Ricky Wells hopes to dial into a title in Glasgow on Sunday. Picture by Nigel Duncan Media

Edinburgh Monarchs duo Sam Masters and Ricky Wells travel to Glasgow on Sunday aiming to return home with the Championship Riders' Individual title (tapes-up 3pm).

They face 14 of British speedway's top riders including ex-Monarchs skipper Craig Cook, former British No 1 Danny King plus ex-World No 6, Chris Harris.

Home heroes Richard Lawson and Richie Worrall are in the field for the 20 qualifying heats, a semi-final and a final.

Berwick's Nick Morris, former Bandit, Ben Barker, and ex-Glasgow favourite Josh Grajconeck, now with Sheffield, are in the field.

The event is the biggest individual meeting in speedway's second tier and the line-up is:

1. Steve Worrall (Newcastle), 2. Charles Wright (Redcar), 3. Michael Palm Toft (Scunthorpe), 4. Ricky Wells (Edinburgh), 5. Danny King (Ipswich), 6. Nick Morris (Berwick), 7. Chris Harris (Peterborough), 8. Josh Grajczonek (Sheffield), 9. Kyle Howarth (Sheffield), 10. Craig Cook (Workington), 11. Richard Lawson (Glasgow), 12. Sam Masters (Edinburgh), 13. Richie Worrall (Glasgow), 14. Rory Schlein (Ipswich), 15. Ben Barker (Redcar), 16. Jack Holder (Peterborough).