

William Hill Scottish Cup First Round draw 2017-18

The draw for the first round of the 2017/18 William Hill Scottish Cup was made at the Excelsior Stadium yesterday following the second preliminary round match between Glasgow University and Threave Rovers.

David Hay, who lifted the famous trophy twice as a player in 1971 and 1974 and once as a manager in 1985 with Celtic, made the draw alongside Glasgow University president Donnie Fergusson.

All four Edinburgh clubs were drawn at home. Civil Service Strollers v Strathspey Thistle, Edinburgh University v Lossiemouth, Lothian Thistle Hutchison Vale v Inverurie Loco Works and Spartans v Vale of Leithen

Elsewhere Whitehill Welfare are away to Nairn County

William Hill Scottish Cup First Round draw 2017-18

Banks O'Dee v Huntly

Brora Rangers v Girvan

BSC Glasgow v Dalbeattie Star

Civil Service Strollers v Strathspey Thistle

Clachnacuddin v Fort William

Colville Park v Cumbernauld Colts

Deveronvale v Hawick Royal Albert

Edinburgh University v Lossiemouth

Edusport Academy v Rothes

Formartine United v Turriff United

Fraserburgh v Forres Mechanics

Gala Fairydean Rovers v Keith

Glenafton Athletic v Glasgow University or Threave Rovers

Lothian Thistle Hutchison Vale v Inverurie Loco Works

Nairn County v Whitehill Welfare

Selkirk v Gretna 2008

Spartans v Vale of Leithen

Wick Academy v University of Stirling

Ties to be played on Saturday, 23 September 2017.