

Beer festival takes in Edinburgh

BrewDog has joined forces with 35 craft breweries in the UK and Europe for its annual, multi-venue craft beer festival until Sunday.

This will be the fifth and biggest to date, taking place simultaneously across 20 cities in the UK, four in Sweden, and in Berlin, Germany.

Beer lovers will get the chance to try unique, small batch brews from the likes of Black Iris in Nottingham, Berlin's BRL0, and Fierce Beer, the new kids on the block from BrewDog's hometown of Aberdeen.

Limited edition brews include an Oatmeal, Passionfruit and Green Iced Tea Pale Ale, a Gingerbread Ice Cream Brown Ale with Vanilla and a Black Treacle and coffee IPA. The full list of beers is below.

Bars in Edinburgh are involved and so is Stewarts Brewing from Midlothian.
