

Capital link with Canon

Canon have confirmed a partnership with Capital Document Solutions, a Scottish-based independent supplier of print and document solutions.

Capital have a team of over 200 operating across five regional branches and the company has been in business for nearly 40 years.

It is the largest independent document solutions provider in Scotland.

Kevin Sullivan, head of Canon Scotland, said: "Capital are a trusted local supplier with a great heritage of providing sound professional advice and exceptional customer service. Our two organisations share the same values."